

Homeless children losing out on education - report

MEDIA ADVISORY

October 1, 2007

TORONTO – A groundbreaking new report on the state of homeless children in the education system will be released by the Community Social Planning Council of Toronto and Aisling Discoveries Child and Family Centre.

Lost in the Shuffle shows how thousands of homeless children each year are needlessly slipping through the cracks of Toronto's education system – and how to prevent this from happening.

When: Monday, October 1, 2007 at 10:30 a.m.

Where: West Hill Public School (location will be posted at main entrance)
299 Morningside Drive, Toronto
(North of Kingston Road and Morningside Mall)

Speakers: Ann Decter, author of Lost in the Shuffle
Paula Carrie, Aisling Discoveries Child and Family Centre
Richard Brown, former principal of West Hill Public School
Rhonda Roffey, Women's Habitat

Media contact:

Alissa Von Bargaen, Communications Officer
Community Social Planning Council of Toronto
T: 416-351-0095 x 214
C: 647-230-9164
avonbargaen@cspc.toronto.on.ca